Chapter 1 by Nabish

One dark and stormy night, I was playing the computer.

Chapter 2 by Harlander

Not "playing on", "playing". I'm into EDM, and I've got a pretty interesting setup using a pair of VR gloves where I can play the computer like a pretty advanced theremin, shaping sounds in the air with my hands. Once you've gone that far you might as well go all out, so I had a high-end headset as well. Lights bloomed and pulsed in time with the music I created, spawning fantastic images. I could create any kind of vibe I wanted. Right now I was chilling out with some birdsong and gentle subsonics, the headset showing me the wistful sights of a Roman ruin overtaken by nature.

When lightning struck nearby, though, things stopped being so relaxing.

Chapter 3 by Weather Report

Suddenly, numbers started popping up all over the room and I was being sucked into the computer, I yelled for help, but no one heard me.

It was dark for a few seconds, then a huge sign in front of me appeared: "Loading..."
